③ Becky, an international student from New Zealand, is teaching you English.

Becky: Look at the following sentence. Can you make a new sentence with the same meaning using the word “for”?

“Five years have passed since my grandmother died.”

You: “Five years have passed”...? What does that sentence mean?

Becky: It means the same as “My grandmother died five years ago.”

You: Umm... “My grandmother has been ₁ < d _ _ _ > for five years.”

Becky: That’s right. Next, the same word can be put into both blanks in the following two sentences. Do you know what that word is?

“How long has Bob been that Italian restaurant?”

“This watch is fast.”

You: Hmm, I don’t know. Can you give me a hint?

Becky: The same word can also be put into the blank in the following sentence.

“I saw a dog in the park.”

You: I got it. It’s “₂ < _ u _ _ i _ _ >,” right? That was a really difficult question.
